

How to follow up equity investments on regular basis for free?

A lot of us do believe that equity investment is the one of those instruments which can help an individual to beat inflation and create wealth over a long time. This is very true but here is the twist. An investor always needs to be stay informed about his/her portfolio on a regular basis whenever he/she is investing directly in stock markets.

Today we will learn some of the easy and free methods through which an investor can track (quarterly results, corporate announcements etc) companies easily.

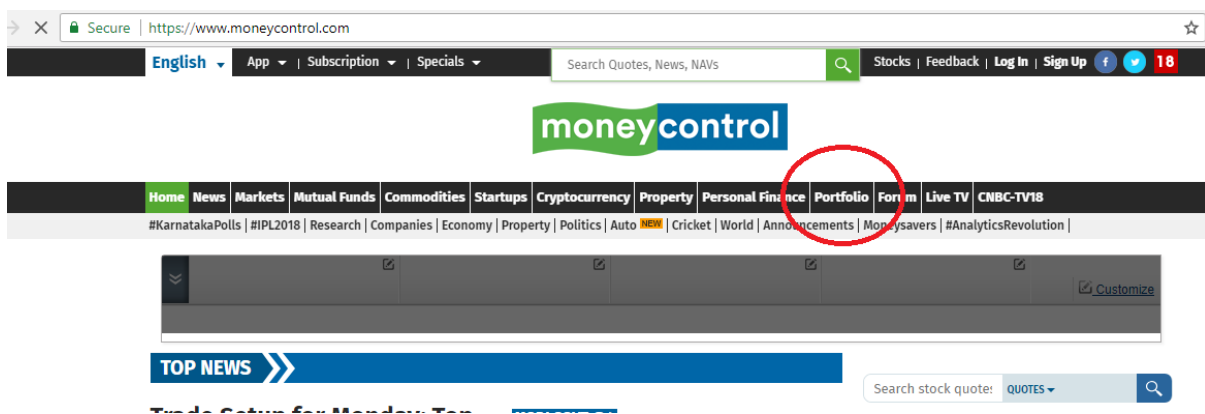

Our aim is to get notified of any news on the company quickly.

1. Moneycontrol

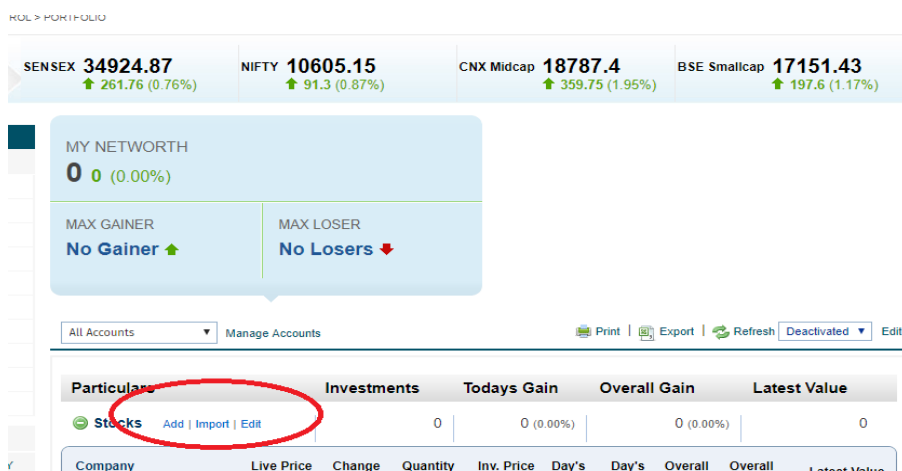

Moneycontrol is indeed most popular financial website among investor & traders. It provides news, charts and a lot of tools to help traders & investors.

Process

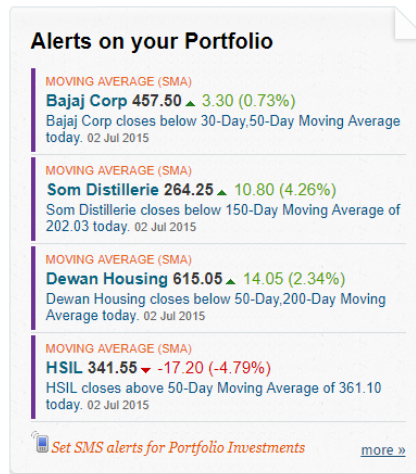

You need to create a portfolio on Moneycontrol website.

- Sign up on Moneycontrol.com website and click on portfolio tab.
- First, you need to add all your investments manually. Though they have an import mechanism, first an investor need to create csv file according to their mentioned template.

- Once you are done with adding your portfolio, you can check news based on the companies you have invested.
- You can find alerts section at the bottom section of Portfolio page.

2. Screener.in

This is the best resource in the Indian market for fundamental investors. And the good part is, it is completely free.

Screener can be used for official alerts/announcement by the company. A lot of times these official announcements (pledging of shares/analyst con call etc.) are missed on sites like Moneycontrol and investors do not have time to track their investments daily.

Process

- Sign up on Screener.in
